

This is what employers have to say:

“We are interested in diversity in order to have representatives that can better communicate with our community. To have a bilingual force is always a plus for us and for our customers. Our company was also at the fair last year. Home Depot has a variety of openings, and in the fair we see young candidates from college to those who have been working for a while.”

Home Depot

“We see different ages and different backgrounds and this will certainly meet our needs in regards to the different positions that we are here to offer.”

Advance Auto Parts

“I’m very impressed we approached a variety of educational levels and backgrounds. I see very optimistic candidates in the fair.”

Vocational Rehabilitation

“We have programs for senior education as well as different positions to work for Florida Metropolitan University. People have been very inquisitive and we have had a wonderful turnout so far.”

This is what job seekers have to say:

“This is very useful for job seeking. Up to now I’ve been making my way through Internet resources. Here you can actually see the companies and positions you apply for.”

Jessica - Candidate from Jacksonville

“I had two interviews at the event and I saw a great variety of opportunities available. We just need to look for them and go get them.”

Ramon Teruel - Candidate from Jacksonville

“I arrived in Jacksonville about 15 days ago from Orlando. I worked at the airport. The Diversity Job Fair is a great tool that we all need to use in order to get what we are looking for.”
